

The motorhome tourists rights and obligations

Dear motorhome friends

- SWEDE STOPS has agreements with hosts in the countryside, who, in connection with their activities, invite motorhome tourists to a free stopover for a night or in max 24 h. Longer stay must be agreed in advance by the host.

Display at the inside of the windscreen a valid SWEDE STOPS certificate

- To protect our hosts from unwanted motorhome tourists who have not purchased the guide, it is important to, at the inside of the windscreen, have a valid certificate. This assures them that you have read and accepted your rights and obligations.
- When buying the guide, SWEDE STOPS always registers the motorhomes registration number, the buyer's e-mail address and telephone number. In addition, when purchasing online, the postal address. General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is followed.
- Arrive always before nightfall. You will not be welcome in the middle of the night. Some hosts have gates that are locked at night.
- Some hosts want you to call in advance, but do not use the phone to reserve a space.

No charges, but be considerate

- Remember you are not camping, so no awnings, picnic tables, pup tents, etc. Ask the host for permission.
- Park only in the designated location.
- Do not arrive with empty water tanks and full waste tanks. Even if it says in the guide, the hosts can not always provide these facilities.
- Never light fires or barbecues, or use generators. Avoid distracting sounds and remember that you are a guest of the family who live and work on the site.
- Do not use toilets, water taps or drains without the host's permission. Never empty the black water into the host's toilet.
- If you have small children, remember that many of the sites are not playgrounds. Be careful of the hosts establishments. It is yours and the child's responsibilities if, by carelessness, any damage occurs.
- Pets must be kept on a lead. Information is given in the guide whether pets are welcome.
- Sometimes, due to a variety of circumstances, personal or work-related, a host can not welcome visitors. Please respect this.
- SWEDE STOPS network allows for a maximum stay of 24 hours. Any extension of this must be agreed in advance with the host.
- Remember, you are the guest of our hosts, so accept the restrictions imposed by the hosts.

SWEDE STOPS stopovers sites are not service areas or regular car parks

- Remember SWEDE STOPS-hosts do not charge for staying overnight and you can not expect the same service as at a camp site.

Important

- Introduce yourself to your host with the help of your guide, and say goodbye when you leave.
- Remember you are not a paying client but a guest. So please take some time to see what your host has for sale. Information about what is offered is in the guide.
- Do not sneak away: there is no obligation to buy.
